

41 People Tell “My Story”

- Ronny Dittbenner
“Look. I Can Walk” .15
- Nancy Gosz
Mother and Daughter Affected on Daughter’s Birthday .19
- Sue Mauren
My Sister, Nancy .31
- Larry Kouhout
Polio—An Epidemic of Fear, Paralysis, and Stigma .35
- Dennis Anderson
My Connection with Sister Kenny—and Growing Up in the 1950s During the Polio Epidemic .47
- Margy Hull
Making Polio Work for Me 53
- Janice Kretsch
Polio Hits Farm Family Very Hard 61
- Adele Poindexter Evidon
Not Yet Two and Confined to an Iron Lung .65
- Janice Norberg
Telling My Mom’s Story .73
- Arlene Sanborn
What Doesn’t Kill You, Makes You Strong 79
- Ruth Gensmen
“You Better Watch Out or....” .91
- Ellajane Knott
Polio and Pregnancy 107
- Lawrence Bigelow
A Bum Leg, But an Active Life 111
- June (Kerkhoff) Alraid
My Post-Polio Is Much Worst Than When First Affected 119
- Bob Beauchaine
I Was One of Kids Sister Kenny Used at Her Medical Symposiums 123
- Sarah Crosby
An Iron Lung at the End of My Bed 129
- Sue Peterson
A Daughter Remembers Her Dad 137
- Clara Ries
Bulbar Polio Paralyzed My Throat 141
- Kate Pettit
Polio—A Family’s Story 145
- Vivian Houk
More Compassion, Understanding and Tolerance for Others 149
- Lois Finke
“She’ll Never Walk Again” 159

LaVonne Grussendorf
Wife Tells of Her Husband's Polio Challenges 165

Harley Greenberg
One of the Lucky Ones 173

Randi Luoto
I'm Very Grateful 183

Carol Lucas
A Small Community's Love Story to a Teen With Polio 185

Linda Miller
A Scary Summer 193

Ernie Lapp
Two Perspectives 197

Jeanne Wiger
Having Polio Made Me a Classic "Over-Achiever" 205

Joan Schaefer
Polio Strikes a Family's Three Children 209

June Fischer
From Active Teenager to Being Bedbound 24/7 215

Glen Hausfeld
My Polio Was Secondary to Other Life Challenges 219

Marcia Halfmann
My Halloween Memory 223

Nancy Wiggins
Teen-Age Memories of Having Polio 231

Kathy Hamers
Four-Plus Years at Gillette Hospital245

Virginia Johnson
A Mother's Advocacy Never Ends 231

Sharon Kroncke
A Love Story ... From Care to Cure 245

Gary Rantala
Polio Hits Home on the Iron Range 253

Jim Jeselnick
Dr. Wright Changed My Life 257

Katalin Govrik Preisler
Polio Come to the Party 263

Lois Drill
My Children Never Saw Me as "Crippled" 277

Paul Johnson
A Lot of Kids on "The Iron Range" Had Polio 281